

Minutes
Cottontown Board of Directors
Tuesday, June 9, 2009

- Members Present Paul Bouknight, Julie Seel, Ellen Cooper, Josh McDuffie, Mary Broadwater, Carol Finethy, Amy Herin, Rusty Sox
- Absent Tom Walters, Dennis Butt
- Call to Order President Paul Bouknight called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m.
- Approval of Minutes Ms. Cooper moved to approve the minutes of the May 12, 2009 meeting. Ms. Broadwater seconded and the minutes were approved.
- Historic Preservation Mr. Sox announced that the process for Cottontown's designation as an architectural conservation district was complete. He thanked everyone who worked hard for a positive outcome.
- Cookbook Ms. Cooper thanked those who had sent recipes – the number looks better, but she still needs about 50 more recipes for a respectable cookbook.
- 4th of July Parade Ms. Finethy is securing the parade permit and coordinating the details of the event.
- Board Nominations Mr. Bouknight requested suggestions for possible future nominees to the board. It was suggested that a call for interested residents be placed in the next newsletter.
- Homeowner Assistance Ms. Broadwater informed the board of programs to help distressed homeowners that could be beneficial for Cottontown residents. It was agreed that a mention would be placed in the newsletter.
- Neighborhood Yard Sale The idea of a neighborhood yard sale was discussed. Ms. Seel agreed to head up such a project.
- Adjourn There was no further business. Ms. Finethy moved to adjourn. Ms. Herin seconded and the motion was approved. The meeting adjourned at 6:56 p.m.
